

Palliative Care in Residential Aged Care

Receive specialist clinical training on-site!

MODULES

MODULE 1: What is the palliative approach and referral to palliative care
Target Group: Registered and Enrolled Nurses, Personal Care Professionals

- Understand the difference between specialist palliative care and the palliative approach
- Referral to palliative care
- Communication with residents and families a

MODULE 2: Recognising deterioration
Target Group: Registered and Enrolled Nurses, Personal Care Professionals

- Identify strategies for recognising deterioration
- Understand the impact of dementia on the expression of pain
- Identify strategies for managing deterioration in residents, especially those living with dementia

MODULE 3: Symptom Management
Target Group: Registered and Enrolled Nurses , Personal Care Professionals

- Define and identify symptoms commonly occurring in RAC
- Assessment and management of symptoms at end of life
- Identify the role and services of Stakeholders who support RAC

MODULE 4: Pain Management
Target Group: Registered and Enrolled Nurses

- Understand how to recognise pain in aged care residents
- Become familiar with tools to assess and evaluate pain
- Become familiar with strategies to manage pain in aged care residents

Health Care Bethlehem

Calvary Healthcare Bethlehem is a specialist palliative care provider with many years' experience in palliative care service provision and training and professional development.

In response to requests for in-house training, the service has developed a series of short training modules to assist RACFs to support the implementation of the palliative approach.

CONTACT
Piera Cantelmi

EMAIL
piera.cantelmi@calvarycare.org.au

PHONE
03 9595 3332

COST
Training can be arranged on a fee-for service basis and according to the needs of the facility. Please make an enquiry, as we will provide packages to suit your organization.

CALL US AND BOOK YOUR TRAINING
TODAY!

9595 3332